

Rebels Moving Towards Torreon

REPORT FIGHT NEAR TO SANTA ROSALIA

Rebels Moving South From Chihuahua Under Command of Gen. Ortega to Attack Federals.

Federal sympathizers in El Paso were circulating a rumor Monday that rebels had been brought to Chihuahua from the south and that fighting had occurred below Santa Rosalia. It was also reported that the rebels had advanced from Escalon to Jimenez, and were preparing to resist Villa's advance from that point. A number of rebels were reported to have arrived here Sunday night, but had not heard of any federal north of Escalon.

Ortega Leads Advance.
Torreón, Jan. 18.—Brigadier general is in charge of the troops. Chihuahua, Jan. 18.—Rebels are moving south from Chihuahua towards Santa Rosalia and Jimenez. John Baskin, who is in charge of the rebels, is moving from Santa Rosalia towards Santa Rosalia. A number of rebels were reported to have arrived here Sunday night, but had not heard of any federal north of Escalon.

Artillery Delays Move.
Gen. Panfilo Natera, accompanied by Col. Benito Chaves, with 200 soldiers and several car loads of ammunition Saturday night for Escalon to begin preparing for the rebel army against Torreón, according to passengers who arrived in Juárez early Sunday. Natera commander of the army in the district where fighting around Ojinaga.

There will be no battle at Torreón for a week or two, say the arrivals. Gen. Maslovia Herrera's command of 2000 cavalry is encamped at Santa Rosalia, waiting for orders from Gen. Natera to move south. The tedious process of transporting the 14 cannon captured by Ojinaga across the desert in the railway at Palomar is delaying the movement on Torreón, it is said.

Only about one-fourth of the artillery in the possession of Villa has reached Chihuahua from Ojinaga.

U. S. NOT INFORMED OF MAGON'S VISIT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—Neither the white house nor state department has been advised today concerning the reported visit to Yermers of Jesus Flores Magon, former minister of the interior, and admiral Von Hintze, the German minister.

Although John Lind is making full reports to president Wilson, white house officials said no mention had been made of the visit to Yermers. However, although it was said Mr. Lind has a latitude of discretion in such matters and may not necessarily have consulted Washington.

There is no change in general conditions in Mexico, according to Mr. Lind's latest report. He has indicated today that he knew nothing of a report that the powers were being suggested to Huerta that the Mexican president resign.

NEW REBEL MONEY IS SHORT $250,000

Douglas, Ariz., Jan. 18.—A quarter of a million dollars is missing from the shipment of new "Constitutional" currency received in Agua Prieta from New York to take the place of the provisional currency. One of the trunks containing the money became lost en route. The new bills in denominations of $1 to $100 were scattered along the right of way for at least a thousand miles.

The new money will be put in circulation as soon as possible to take the place of the provisional currency, which because of its being on a poor grade of paper opened the way for a great flood of counterfeiters. The new bills, however, United States currency quite closely.

VILLA IS READY FOR NEXT BATTLE

San Blas, Sinaloa, Jan. 18.—Patoche Villa reported in a telegram to Venustiano Carranza Sunday that he is prepared to move in any direction with an ample force. He said he has 25 cannon ready for service and plenty of ammunition.

Carranza expects Villa to move directly into the state of Coahuila. A report from Gen. Chao who recently drove the federalists into Chihuahua that he had destroyed the railroad in such a way as to make it impossible for the federalists to reinforce the Torreón garrison.

Carranza stated that since the start of the revolution the "Constitutionalists" have captured 26 pieces of heavy artillery, nearly one-half the equipment of the entire Mexican army.

VILLA SAYS HE WILL BE IN JUAREZ SOON

A musical entertainment in honor of Gen. Villa was held Sunday in the national theater at Chihuahua, inviting to passengers arriving in Juárez Monday morning from the south. The gala musical was attended by all the high "Constitutionalist" officers in the city, it is said.

Villa told passengers who reached Juárez today that he would be in Juárez as soon as he could dispose of affairs that need his attention in Chihuahua. "I will be in Juárez before taking up the campaign against Torreón," he said. "I have no idea just when this will be, but I think I will be there before the end of next two or three days."

FEDERALS TRY TO REINFORCE TORREON

Mexico City, Mex., Jan. 18.—Trains at Saltillo have been loaded with reinforcements and supplies for Gen. Valasco, the federal commander at Torreón, but their departure has been delayed by reports of fighting between Saltillo and San Luis Potosí. Fighting is also in progress around Matamoros.

Fear of another series of raids within the federal district was aroused by an engagement between a small force of federalists and a Zapata scouting party at Tlaxpan, a suburb, Saturday night. It is reported that the federal force deserted to the Zapatistas. The federal detachment also lost a number of wounded.

REBEL GOVERNMENT NOTES

REPLACE STATE ISSUES.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—Robert Pasquel, the "Constitutionalist" agent here, was advised by Gen. Carranza today that the state issues of Sinaloa, Chihuahua and Sonora were being replaced by an issue of the "Constitutionalist" government, and that arrangements were being made to secure the latter with a silver reserve. The "Constitutionalist" has mines in Sinaloa and Sonora and have begun mining silver.

FLORES MAGON MAY SEEK CONFERENCE WITH LIND

Veracruz, Mex., Jan. 18.—For the reported purpose of seeking a conference with John Lind, president Wilson's representative, Jesus Flores Magon arrived here Sunday from Mexico City. He is former minister of the interior and was a candidate for the vice presidency in the recent elections. Magon is said to bear a message from president Huerta.

ARMY TO HOLD TIGHT TO HUERTA'S MEN

Gen. Scott Assumes Rebel Commander Benavides That Intended Prisoners Will Not Escape.

Gen. Hugh L. Scott, commander of the border patrol at El Paso, has assured Gen. E. A. Benavides, of the Juárez garrison, that he will take every precaution to see that none of the federal prisoners who will be interned at Fort Bliss escape from the prison camp.

"Constitutionalist" officers in Juárez and agents in El Paso have been of the opinion that, unless a strict guard is kept, many prisoners will be able to slip away and reënter Mexico to take up arms against the rebels.

"It is possible that many of the officers could slip away unless a strict guard is kept," said Gen. Benavides. "They would probably try to reënter Mexico and join the federalists. If we caught them they would be executed, according to the rules of war, and then there would be criticism from the United States. We have wired to proper authorities in Washington asking that every precaution be taken to prevent the escape of any of the prisoners."

It is possible that our attitude in this matter may cause the removal of the federalists to some interior camp, where the chance of escaping and reëntering Mexico would be minimized.

BANKS ARE BUYING THE REBEL CURRENCY

Is Being Used By Cattlemen In Paying Duty on Stock Brought Across Mexican Territory.

"Constitutionalist" money is finding a ready sale in El Paso at 31, 31 1/2 and 32 cents. The demand for this kind of money is being made by cattlemen and others who have goods to be bought in Mexico or duties and taxes to pay, are buying the "Constitutionalist" coin and saving three and four cents on the price of this money under that of Mexican national bank money.

One bank asked for $20,000 in this money but could not get it Saturday. Agents of other banks are being asked to begin buying the money as quickly as it is taken in exchange for merchandise.

FIND NO SIGN OF CASTILLO'S OUTLAWS

No sign of Maximo Castillo's outlaw band has been discovered near Palomares, Chih., according to telegrams received by the federal government. The rebels of the Juárez garrison. Rebel troops garrisoning Palomares and scouting parties have been sent out to look for the band, but have not found them. It is believed in Juárez that the Castillo group has dispersed.

Gen. Benavides ordered the 300 men stationed at Casas Grandes to take the Castillo outlaws train and stay on it until the band was sighted. The detachment was ordered to return to Casas Grandes with the word that there is no sign of the outlaws in western Chihuahua and it is thought they have left the state.

GERMANS MAY LEAVE, IF LIVES IN DANGER

German subjects in Mexico have been ordered to leave as soon as their lives may be endangered. This warning has been issued from the German consulate in Mexico City. The order was received by Max Weber, German consul in Juárez, and has been communicated to the German colony in Chihuahua. These instructions are in accordance with the order issued by the German government last Monday that the German government had ordered all German subjects to leave Mexico at once.

GARRAZA PROVIDES FOR HIS SUCCESSOR

By a decree issued at "Constitutionalist" army headquarters in Hermosillo, Sonora, Gen. Garranza has provided for his successor in the event that he becomes incapacitated for service. The decree provides that a two-thirds majority of the votes of the rebels in the field will be necessary to name a chief of command. Carranza's decree calls for the election to be held in Mexico City, if that capital is in the hands of the "Constitutionalists." If not, the vote may be taken at some point in the field.

WILL INVESTIGATE SPANIARDS' LOSSES

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 18.—Local authorities announce investigation of a woman who committed suicide by shooting here Friday night have been identified as A. H. Hammett, alleged assassin of treasurer of Cross county, Arkansas, and Mrs. Sally Blanche Wood Shoemaker, both of Wynne, Ark. Hammett is said to have been in the city a year ago, two days before his term as county treasurer expired. He is said to have been short $25,000 in his accounts.

MORE REFUGEES FROM CHIHUAHUA

Parra, Jimenez and other cities south of Chihuahua, although a number were from the state capital of Chihuahua. The majority of them are supposedly "Constitutionalist" and Huerta sympathizers. There were no more than 150 refugees on the train. Among them was Dr. E. C. Cook, English physician at Parra, on his way to England to wind up the affairs of an estate which has been left him.

FAMINE OF COAL CONFRONTS MEXICO

New York, Jan. 18.—Mexico faces a coal famine as a result of her internal struggle, according to "Coal Age," unless the supply from other countries equals the Juárez demand. Since 1913 brought either total destruction or great damage to practically all of the coal mines in the southern republic and the paper states there seems to be no reasonable prospect of repairing the situation within several years.

AZCONA GOES EAST

Juan Sanchez Azcona, Carranza's representative and confidential agent, left Monday for New York, where he will sail for Europe. His family accompanied him and will live in Paris while he is abroad. His son Juan Sanchez Azcona, Jr., will accompany his father on his European mission.

ROQUE GONZALEZ GARZA HERE

Roque Gonzalez Garza, a major under Madero during the "Maderista" revolution, is here for a conference with rebel chiefs. He was a member of the house of deputies during the Madero administration, but left the country when Madero was killed.

GROCCERS OPEN THE BASEBALL SEASON

Sunday was such a summery day, baseball "bugs" got busy and the Nationals team defeated the Watson nine by a score of 12 to 12. The game was played on the Rio Grande amateur grounds.

MEXICANS FORMED THE BATTERY

for the leading aggression, while Wharton and McNulty pitched and received for the winners.

FIVE FIRES OCCUR WITHIN 36 HOURS

Tattoo Shop on Mills Street Is Wrecked While Proprietor Took a Shower; Auto Damaged.

Five fires within 36 hours was the record in El Paso from Saturday afternoon to Monday. In point of damage the fire breaking out in the tattoo shop at 217 Mills street at 6:15 o'clock Monday morning, was the most costly. Only minor damage resulted from the other three fires. D. H. Bailey, proprietor of the tattoo shop, early Monday morning before leaving for a barber shop, lighted an oil stove. Shortly afterwards the place was in flames. The heat of the fire broke out all the window lights of the establishment and the flames were making their way toward the rooming house above when the central fire department arrived on the scene. In addition to the damage done to the building, approximately $100, a sewing machine, a desk and other pieces of clothing were lost in the fire.

Proves a Mistake.

Church goers returning from church Sunday night took a shower. The water was turned on at 2:45 o'clock, but the passersby thought a fire was in progress, and turned in an alarm. There was no fire.

Auto Damaged in Fire.

Knocking ashes out of a pipe resulted in the fire at 204 North Kansas street Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, which did about $20 worth of damage to the two passenger automobile belonging to W. W. Insall. The machine had just been filled with gasoline. One of the employees of the place intending to knock the ash out of his pipe accidentally dropped a match which was burned before the fire was extinguished.

Smoking Pipe Causes Alarm.

A smoking pipe at 628 North El Paso street, filling the house with smoke, was responsible for the alarm that was sounded at 10:05 o'clock Sunday morning. There was no damage.

Children with matches set a mattress at 201 West Sixth street on fire Saturday afternoon.

RECORD BROKEN IN ATTENDANCE SUNDAY

More People at Evangelistic Meeting in First Presbyterian on Sunday Than at "Go to Church Day."

The evangelistic meetings in progress at the First Presbyterian church reached high water mark Sunday when Rev. J. H. Burns spoke to two large congregations. With the two services there were more people in attendance than at the church a week ago on "Everybody Go to Church Day."

In the morning Dr. Burns' sermon was on the subject, "Heaven's Increase," based on Luke 10:10. The evening service was on the subject, "The Kingdom of God is within you," based on Luke 17:21. The sermon dealt principally with the danger of encouraging a sinful tendency. "Selfishness was at the bottom of the downfall," he said, "and this made Satan and all his attractions most alluring."

Dr. Burns spoke tonight at the Men's club, where a dinner will be served in his honor at 6:30. His subject, following the dinner, will be "The Kingdom of God is within you." The meeting, with the exception of tonight, will continue in the upstairs auditorium of the club, where the first afternoon services will also be held from time to time.

FIND COLE'S AUTO HIDDEN IN JUAREZ

Initials on Doors Had Been Painted Out and Number Removed, But the Car Was Not Damaged.

Concealed in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track, the Chalmers' car belonging to Otto C. Cole was found Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of the corral and hidden in the back. The efforts of the police and the cooperation of officers of neighboring towns failed to locate the car until Sunday. The car was found in a room of an adobe corral near the old San Jose mission, one mile beyond the Juárez race track. The car was taken from the front of